Forecast For Wales
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 14 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain clearing tonight. Increasingly cloudy and damp on Monday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A wet start to the night with outbreaks of rain heavy at times over west-facing hills. This will ease, leaving a drier, clearer second-half of the night. Strong and gusty winds will also ease later. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Monday:
A dry and increasingly cloudy day for most, with light rain coming in from the west during the day. Much of east Wales should remain dry throughout the day. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Early rain on Tuesday will steadily clear, leaving increasingly sunny skies. Wednesday dry with warm sunny spells. Thursday largely dry but cloudier and breezier.
